1. O that men to the Lord would give praise for his good - ness then, And
2. He to dry land turns wa - ter - springs, and floods to wil - der - ness; For
3. And there, for dwell - ing, he a place doth to the hun - gry give, That
4. A - gain they are di - min - ish - ed, and ver - y low brought down, Through 5. Yet set - teth he the poor on high from all his mis - er - ies, And for his works of won - der done un - to the sons of men! A - sins of those that dwell there - in, fat land to bar - ren - ness. The they a cit - y may pre - pare com - mo - dious - ly to live. There sor - row and af - flic - tion, and great op - pres - sion. He he, much like un - to a flock, doth make him fam - i - lies. They mong the peo - ple gath - er - ed let them ex - alt his name; A - burnt and parch - ed wil - der - ness to wa - ter - pools he brings; The sow they fields, and vine - yards plant, to yield fruits of in - crease. His up - on prin - ces pours con - tempt and caus - eth them to stray, And that are righ - teous shall re - joice, when they the same shall see; And, mong as - sem - bled el - ders spread his most re - nown - ed fame.

ground that was dry'd up be - fore he turns to wa - ter - springs: bless - ing makes them mul - ti - ply, lets not their beasts de - crease.
wan - der in a wil - der - ness, where - in there is no way.
as a - sham - ed, stop her mouth shall all in - iq - ui - ty.
