

O Thou the God of All My Praise

Psalm 109:1-12
Scottish Psalter, 1650, altered

Elizabethtown 8.6.8.6.8.8.6.
Stephen Pribble, 2002

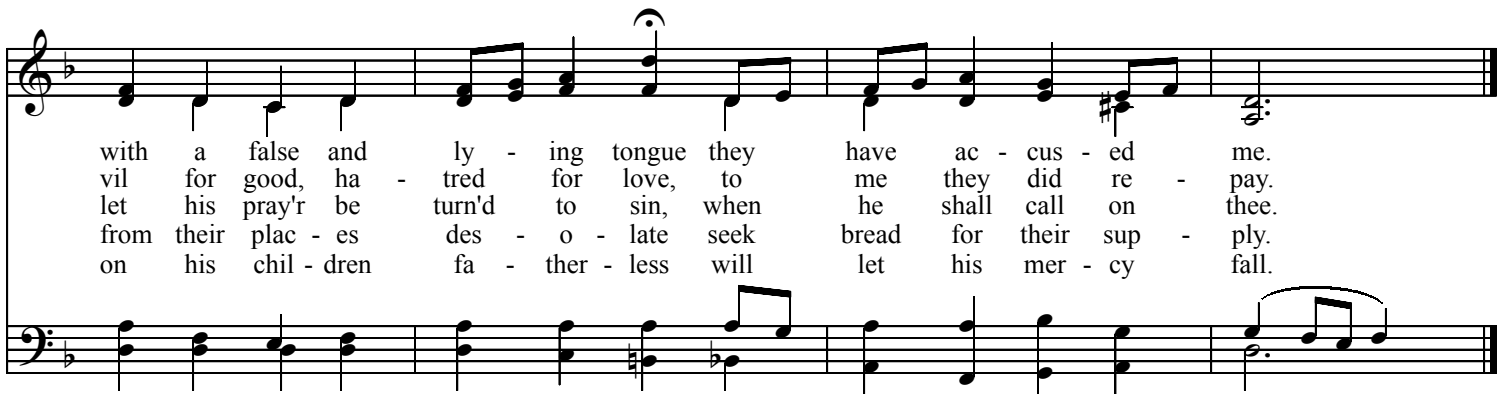

1. O thou the God of all my praise, do thou not hold thy peace; For
2. They did be - set me round a - bout with words of hate - ful spite: And
3. Set thou the wick - ed o - ver him; and up - on his right hand Give 4. Few be his days, and in his room his charge an - oth - er take. His 5. Let cov - et - ous ex - tor - tion - ers catch all he hath a - way: Of mouths of wick - ed men to speak a - gainst me do not cease: The though to them no cause I gave, a - gainst me they did fight. They thou his great - est en - e - my, ev'n Sa - tan, leave to stand. And chil - dren let be fa - ther - less, his wife a wid - ow make. His all for which he la - bour'd hath let strang - ers make a prey. Let mouths of vile de - ceit - ful men a - gainst me o - pen'd, o - pen'd be; And for my love be - came my foes, but I, but I me set to pray. E - when by thee he shall be judg'd, let him, let him con - demn - ed be; And chil - dren let be vag - a - bonds, and beg, and beg con - tin - ual - ly; And there be none to pit - y him, let there be none, be none at all That with a false and ly - ing tongue they have ac - cus - ed me. vil for good, ha - tred for love, to me they did re - pay.

let his pray'r be turn'd to sin, when he shall call on thee.
from their plac - es des - o - late seek bread for their sup - ply.
on his chil - dren fa - ther - less will let his mer - cy fall.