

Praise Ye the Lord, Who Do Him Fear

Composed for the service of particularization,
Covenant Orthodox Presbyterian Church

Psalm 22:23-30
Scottish Psalter, 1650

Brighton C.M.D.
Stephen Pribble, 2002

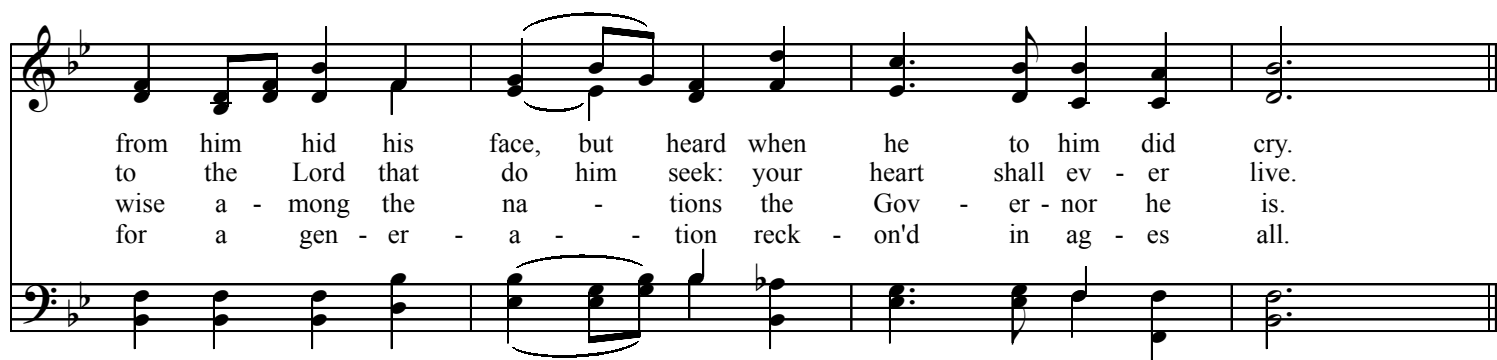

1. Praise ye the Lord, who do him fear; him glo - ri - fy all ye The
2. With - in the con - gre - ga - tion great my praise shall be of thee; My
3. All ends of th' earth re - mem - ber shall, and turn the Lord un - to; All
4. Earth's fat ones eat and wor - ship shall: all who to dust de - scend Shall seed of Ja - cob; fear him all that Is - r'el's chil - dren be. For vows be - fore them that him fear shall be per - form'd by me. The kin - dreds of the na - tions to him shall hom - age do: Be - bow to him; none of them can his soul from death de - fend. A he des - pis'd not nor ab - horr'd th' af - flict - ed's mis - er - y; Nor meek shall eat, and shall be fill'd; they al - so praise shall give Un - cause the king - dom to the Lord doth ap - per - tain as his; Like - seed shall ser - vice do to him; un - to the Lord it shall Be from him hid his face, but heard when he to him did cry.

to the Lord that do him seek: your heart shall ev - er live.
wise a - mong the na - tions the Gov - er - nor he is.
for a gen - er - a - tion reck - on'd in ag - es all.