1. Sing loud to God our strength; with joy to Jacob's God do sing. Take up a psalm, the pleasant harp, timbrel and psaltery bring. Blow trumpets at new moon, what day our feast appointed is:

2. To Joseph this a testimony he made, when Egypt land He travell'd through, where speech I heard I did not understand. His at the streams of Meribah of thee a proof did take. O shoul'der I from burdens took, his hands from pots did free. Thou shoul'der I from burdens took, his hands from pots did free. Thou

3. In secret place of thundering I did thee answer make; And unto any god unknown thou bowing down shalt fall. I am the Lord thy God, which did from Egypt land thee guide; I'll am the Lord thy God, which did from Egypt land thee guide; I'll

4. In midst of thee there shall not be any strange god at all; Nor strange god at all; Nor strange god at all; Nor charge to Is'rael, and a law of Jacob's God was this. didst in trouble on me call, and I delivered thee: Thee, O Is'rael, if thou wilt but hearken unto me. fill thy mouth abundant ly, do thou it open wide.
