

The Praises of Thy Wonders, Lord

Composed for the service of particularization,
Chain-O-Lakes Orthodox Presbyterian Church

Psalms 89:5-8, 15-16
Scottish Psalter, 1650

Central Lake C.M.D.
Stephen Pribble, 2002

1. The prais - es of thy won - ders, Lord, the heav - ens shall ex - press; And
2. Great fear in meet - ing of the saints is due un - to the Lord; And
3. O great - ly bless'd the peo - ple are the joy - ful sound that know; In in the con - gre - ga - tion of saints thy faith - ful - ness. For he of all a - bout him should with rev - 'rence be a - dor'd. O bright - ness of thy face, O Lord, they ev - er on shall go. They who in heav - en with the Lord may once him - self com - pare? Who thou that art the Lord of hosts, what Lord in might - i - ness Is in thy name shall all the day re - joice ex - ceed - ing - ly; And is like God a - mong the sons of those that might - y are?

like to thee? who com - pass'd round art with thy faith - ful - ness.
in thy righ - teous - ness shall they ex - alt - ed be on high.