

Thou Art the God That Wonders Dost

Psalm 77:14-20
Scottish Psalter, 1650

Oakland C.M.D.
Stephen Pribble, 2001

1. Thou art the God that wonders dost by thy right hand most strong: Thy
2. The wa - ters, Lord, per - ceiv - ed thee, the wa - ters saw thee well; And
3. Thy thun - der's voice a - longst the heav'n a might - y noise did make; By might - y pow'r thou hast de - clared the na - tions a - mong. To they for fear a - side did flee; the depths on trem - bling fell. The light - nings light - en'd was the world, th' earth trem - ble did and shake. Thy 4. Thy thine own peo - ple with thine arm thou didst re - demp - tion bring; To clouds in wa - ter forth were pour'd, sound loud - ly did the sky; And way is in the sea, and in the wa - ters great thy path; Yet peo - ple thou didst safe - ly lead, like to a flock of sheep; By Ja - cob's sons, and to the tribes of Jo - seph that do spring.

swift - ly through the world a - broad thine ar - rows fierce did fly.
are thy foot - steps hid, O Lord; none knowl - edge there - of hath.
Mo - ses' hand and Aa - ron's thou didst them con - duct and keep.