

Unto the Lord I with My Voice

Psalms 77:1-13
Scottish Psalter, 1650

Livingston C.M.D.
 Stephen Pribble, 2001

1. Un - to the Lord I with my voice, I un - to God did cry, Ev'n
 2. I to re - mem - brance God did call, yet trou - ble did re - main; And
 3. The days of old to mind I call'd, and oft did think up - on The
 4. For ev - er will the Lord cast off, and gra - cious be no more? For
 5. Then did I say, That sure - ly this is mine in - firm - i - ty: I'll
 6. I al - so will of all thy works my med - i - ta - tion make; And with my voice, and un - to me his ear he did ap - ply. I o - ver - whelm'd my spir - it was, whilst I did sore com - plain. Mine times and a - ges that are past full man - y years a - gone. By ev - er is his mer - cy gone? fails his word ev - er - more? Is't mind the years of the right hand of him that is most High. Yea, of thy do - ings to dis - course great plea - sure I will take. O in my trou - ble sought the Lord, my sore by night did run, And eyes, de - barr'd from rest and sleep, thou mak - est still to wake; My night my song I call to mind, and com - mune with my heart; My true that to be gra - cious the Lord for - got - ten hath? And I re - mem - ber will the works per - form - ed by the Lord: The God, thy way most ho - ly is with - in thy sanc - tuar - y; And ceas - ed not; my griev - ed soul did con - so - la - tion shun. trou - ble is so great that I un - a - ble am to speak.

 sp'rit did care - ful - ly en - quire how I might ease my smart.
 that his ten - der mer - cies he hath shut up in his wrath?
 won - ders done of old by thee I sure - ly will re - cord.
 what God is so great in pow'r as is our God most high?