

Ye Righteous in the Lord Rejoice

Psalm 33:1-9
Scottish Psalter, 1650

Arr. by Stephen Pribble, 2001

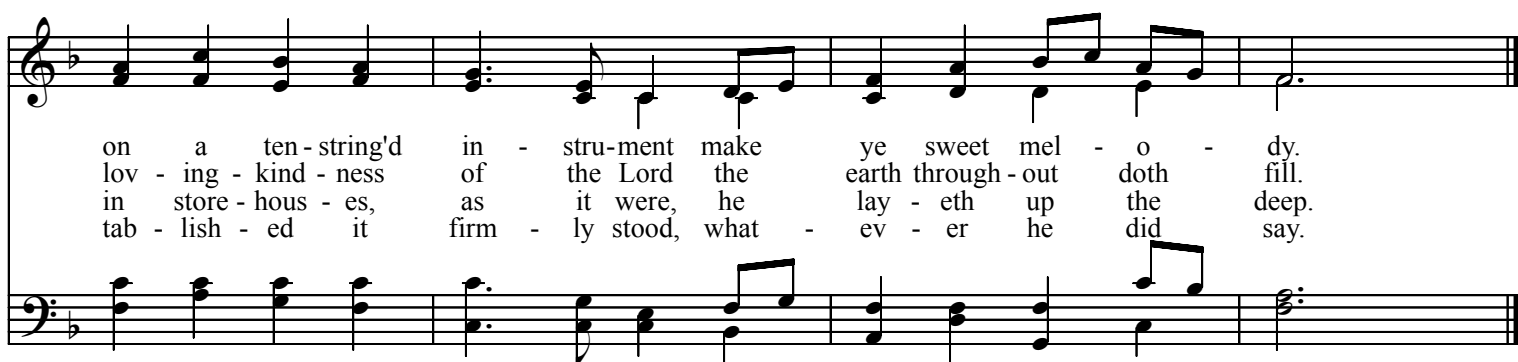

1. Ye righ-teous in the Lord re-joice; it come-ly is and right, That
2. A new song to him sing, and play with loud noise skil-ful-ly; For
3. The heav-ens by the word of God did their be-gin-nings take; And
4. Let earth, and all that live there-in, with rev'-rence fear the Lord; Let up-right men, with thank-ful voice, should praise the Lord of might. Praise right is God's word, all his works are done in ver-i-ty. To by the breath-ing of his mouth he all their hosts did make. The all the world's in-hab-it-ants dread him with one ac-cord. For God with harp, and un-to him sing with the psal-ter-y; Upjudg-ment and to righ-teous-ness a love he bear-eth still; The wa-ters of the seas he brings to-ge-th-er as an heap; And he did speak the word, and done it was with-out de-lay; Es-on a ten-string'd in-stru-ment make ye sweet mel-o-dy. lov-ing-kind-ness of the Lord the earth through-out doth fill.

in store-hous-es, as it were, he lay-eth up the deep.
tab-lish-ed it firm-ly stood, what-ev-er he did say.
