IV. Rules for Review of Sessional Records

 - 1. Approved without exception. Records are approved; no action by the session is required.

- C. Should the presbytery desire to see the records book of any particular session, it shall be presented at the next stated meeting.
- D. Should any session desire to challenge any exceptions made by the Sessional Records Committee, it should formally communicate this to the stated clerk. The session should then bring its records book to the next stated meeting. A temporary committee shall be erected during the stated meeting to review the challenge. V. Procedure for Electing Commissioners to General Assembly

- A. The choice of ministerial commissioners to General Assembly shall be made at the September stated meeting of presbytery, and at that meeting the churches shall be advised of their eligibility to select ruling elder commissioners. The selection of commissioners shall be concluded at the January stated meeting of presbytery to replace any unable to attend.
- B. Selection of ministerial commissioners to the General Assembly
 - 1. One-third of the commissioners shall be selected by turn from the top of the current selection list of ministerial members of presbytery. Newly enrolled ministers shall be placed at the bottom of the current selection list.
 - 2. The remaining commissioners shall be elected by presbytery.
 - 3. A foreign missionary ministerial member of presbytery shall automatically be elected to attend General Assembly once during his furlough.
 - 4. Alternates of those chosen by turn shall be those next in order from the current selection list. Alternates for those elected by presbytery shall be elected up to 50% of the total commissioners. The alternate receiving the highest number of votes shall be first alternate, the one receiving the next highest, second alternate, etc.
 - 5. Upon the adjournment of the General Assembly a new selection list for the next General Assembly shall go into effect. The new selection list shall be drawn up from the current selection list in this manner: commissioners selected by turn or elected who are unable to attend General Assembly shall be placed at the bottom of the current selection list in the order their names appeared on the list but before those who do attend. Commissioners who do attend shall be placed in the order their names appeared on the list below those who were unable to attend. This then becomes the current selection list for the next General Assembly.
- C. Selection of ruling elder commissioners to the General Assembly

1. This selection shall be made by the sessions from churches entitled to send commissioners. The selection of eligible churches shall be made from the top of the current selection list of churches.
2. Alternate eligible churches shall be selected from the remaining churches in the order in which they appear on the list.
3. Newly enrolled churches shall be placed at the bottom of the current selection list.
4. The sessions of eligible churches shall notify the stated clerk in writing at least six weeks before the January stated meeting of their choices of commissioners or of their inability to send any. The stated clerk shall then notify the alternate churches, which thus become eligible to select commissioners. The presbytery shall finalize the list of ruling elder commissioners and alternate ruling elder commissioners at the January stated meeting of presbytery and shall certify them to the General Assembly by the stated clerk of presbytery.
5. Upon the adjournment of General Assembly a new selection list shall be drawn up from the current selection list of churches in this manner: eligible churches unable to send a ruling elder commissioner shall be placed at the bottom of the current selection list in the order the churches appeared on the list but before those who do send commissioners. Churches that do send commissioners shall be placed in the order their churches appeared on the list below those churches that were unable to send commissioners. This then becomes the current selection list for the next General Assembly.

VIII. Policy Statement and Guidelines for Reducing the Risk of Child Abuse at Presbytery-sponsored Youth Events

- A. Preventing Abuse. All children and volunteers of the presbytery should be able to enjoy a safe, fair, and healthy environment in which to grow in Christ and develop healthy Christian friendships. As such, the OPC Presbytery of Michigan and Ontario has instituted several guidelines for all volunteers who work with our children and youth at presbytery-sponsored events. These guidelines have been set in place in order to protect children and youth from any abusive behavior, and help our adult volunteers avoid situations that might lead to allegations against them, including false allegations. The presbytery currently recognizes five types of abusive behavior that we are seeking to prevent.
 1. Emotional Abuse—Attacking the emotional well-being and stability of an individual.
 2. Physical Abuse—Harming the physical well-being of an individual.
 3. Sexual Abuse—Harming an individual through inappropriate sexual conduct or lewd behavior.

4. Ethical Abuse—Harming an individual by convincing him or her to do an act that is against his or her mental, physical and spiritual interests.
5. Neglect—Harming an individual by abandoning, ignoring or rejecting basic needs.

B. Operational Guidelines. In order to prevent situations where abuse is most likely to occur, the presbytery has established a set of operational and supervisory guidelines by which all adult volunteers and adult participants should abide. They are as follows:

1. More than one adult should always be present with children and youth at all presbytery events and all related activities during those events.
2. All activities should be done in an open area or room, not in a private or restricted location (e.g., rooms with no windows or behind a closed door).
3. Some forms of touching are suitable as long as they are respectful, appropriate and follow these guidelines:
 - a. Touching should be in response to the need of the child, not the need of the adult.
 - b. Touching should be with the child's permission.
 - c. Resistance to touching must be respected.
 - d. Touching should never include the breast, the buttocks or the groin.
 - e. Touching should be done in the open, not in private.
 - f. Touching should have a brief, limited duration.
 - g. Touching is age and developmentally dependent; what is appropriate changes over time.
4. At each presbytery event, the Youth Committee will organize a periodical inspection of rooms, offices, work areas and other areas where children and adults are together. We will also check bathrooms, closets and other areas where sexual abuse might occur.
5. At each presbytery event, the Youth Committee will designate two "confidential counselors"—one male and one female—to whom any student, camper or other child can go at any time, without special permission, to discuss any problems he or she may be having.
6. A fair and discreet investigation will occur into all alleged incidents of abuse, with due respect for people's privacy and confidentiality.

C. Presbytery Response Plan. In the case of an allegation of abuse, the Youth Committee—on behalf of the presbytery—shall follow these guidelines:

1. We shall take all allegations seriously and reach out to the victim and the victim's family—showing care and support to prevent further hurt, pain or anger; and fostering an atmosphere where reconciliation between all involved parties can be reached outside of formal litigation.
2. We shall treat the accused with dignity and support, respecting the need for privacy and confidentiality, and shall not approach the accused until the safety of the young person is secured.
3. If reconciliation or a right understanding of the situation is not agreed upon by the Youth Committee and the accuser, we shall immediately contact the moderator of presbytery, our church insurance company and our church attorney. The Committee shall not attempt an in-depth investigation, but shall leave it to professional assistance familiar with such procedures.
4. We shall report any suspected abuse required by state law to the appropriate enforcement agency.
5. We shall document all our efforts at handling any alleged incidents.
6. We shall designate a specific spokesperson (ordinarily the Youth Committee chairman) on behalf of the church to communicate to the presbytery—and the media, if necessary—in a discrete, informed and diplomatic way, in order to present a consistent and unified message. We will not deny the incident occurred when there is clear evidence to the contrary, nor minimize the incident, nor blame the victim or the victim's family, nor assume guilt of the accused, but will seek to deal equitably with all parties involved.
